

ABOUT THIS CATALOG

This catalog supersedes all previous catalogs and academic information and policies and is binding on all students. It was prepared on the basis of the best information available at the time of publication. However, students continue a course of study in effect at the time they enrolled provided that no more than the normal period is taken to complete the program. The University reserves the right to change tuition, fees, course offerings, regulations and admission and graduation requirements at any time without prior notice.

This catalog, posted on the YU Web site, is the official catalog. Printed versions are copies of the catalog. If there are corrections or changes, they will be published as dated revisions indicating the changes from previous versions.

When preparing their programs each semester, students should consult with faculty advisers and academic counselors.

ACCREDITATION

Yeshiva University is accredited by the Commission on Higher Education Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools and by the appropriate professional agencies: the Liaison Committee on Medical Education of the American Medical Association, the Association of the American Medical Colleges, the American Psychological Association, the American Bar Association, the Commission on Accreditation of the Council on Social Work Education, the Association of Institutions of Higher Learning for Jewish Education and the National Board of License for Hebrew Teachers.

SAFETY & SECURITY

Yeshiva University takes its responsibility for on-campus security very seriously and makes every effort to offer its students, faculty and staff a safe and comfortable environment by working closely with the local community and with law enforcement agencies. Even though there is a very low rate of crime on our campuses, federal law requires us to make crime statistics available. You can find them at <http://ope.ed.gov/security>. Search for Yeshiva University, then click on a particular campus. At the bottom of each page, you can select various categories of crime statistics to view. You can also contact YU Security at 212.960.5221 for more information.

While emergency events on campus are unlikely, it

YESHIVA UNIVERSITY OVERVIEW

Yeshiva University is a top-tier national research institution with the guiding vision that the best of the heritage of contemporary civilization and knowledge is compatible with the ancient traditions of Jewish law and life. This is embodied in the concept of Torah Umadda the Hebrew phrase referring to traditional religious learning combined with contemporary academic study the cornerstone of the University's mission.

Our three undergraduate schools Yeshiva College, Stern College for Women and Sy Syms School of Business offer a dual curriculum under which students pursue liberal arts, sciences and business in conjunction with comprehensive Jewish studies. The University's graduate and affiliated schools Albert Einstein College of Medicine, Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, Wurzweiler School of Social Work, Ferkauf Graduate School of Psychology,
