

responsibilities to Yeshiva University with integrity and in full compliance with applicable laws and regulations and Yeshiva University's own operating policies and procedures. To that end, Yeshiva University has adopted this Policy to protect Protected Persons from Retaliatory Action for engaging in Protected Activity (as such terms are defined below).

It is the policy of Yeshiva University to encourage Protected Persons to engage in Protected Activity.

Protected Persons and Protected Activity

For purposes of this Policy, Protected Persons are defined as all officers, faculty, employees, former employees, and independent contractors of Yeshiva University.

A Protected Person is deemed to be engaged in Protected Activity, regardless of whether or not the following:

- (a) discloses, or threatens to disclose, to a supervisor or to a public body an activity,
- (b) provides information to, or testifies before, any public body conducting an investigation, hearing, or inquiry into any such activity, policy, or practice by Yeshiva University; or
- (c) objects to, or refuses to participate in, any such activity, policy, or practice.
